HOSPITAL QUARANTINED.

Health Officer Closes Orange Memorial Because of Diphtheria.

ORANGE, N. J., Jan. 18.—Under orders from the Board of Health the Orange Memorial Hospital was placed under quarantine to-day because there are cases of diphtheria in the institution. One of the rules of the hospital is that no contagious disease shall be received, but these cases developed in persons suffering from other illnesses.

Health Inspector William Schuler says that he placed a quarantine on the building because he is not satisfied with the quarantine measures adopted. He discovered two cases of diphtheria in the men's ward. They have been removed to one of the cottages on the grounds, but no new patients can be received at the hospital until the quarantine is removed, which will be in about ten days.

There is no other hospital in the Oranges.

Mr. McGovern Did Not Collect.

Owen McGovern of 63 East End avenue writes to say that he did not, as might be inferred from the testimony taken before Magistrate Ommen in the stone cutting inquiry, assist in the collection of money for Mr. Cosgrove from Mr. Zimmerman and that he did not know that any such money had been collected until he heard it from one of the Assistant District Attorneys some two months ago. As to the $510 testified to having been paid to walking delegates, he knows of no such sum being paid to the Stone Cutters' Association, of which he was president when the Zimmerman collection was made.

The Wanamaker Store.

TO PALM BEACH By The Aladdin's Lamp Route

Bundle up in your furs this morning, as you make the short journey to WANAMAKER'S. But when you have taken the elevator to the Second Floor, you will unconsciously push them aside, or throw them over your arms, as you pass among the coconut bearing palms, and the beds of flowers that decorate the approach to the brilliant reproduction of the Piazza of the Royal Poinciana, that greets our visitors today.

The architects and builders have accomplished a remarkable piece of work, that is not mere optical illusion, to make a rich setting for

The Wanamaker Showing of Florida Gowns and Millinery

It is a superb picture to greet the eyes still moist from the bite of Northern Winter winds. The piazza is brilliant with gaily attired figures, dressed in the most exquisite Summer gowns that the leading American designers could produce for this important service—dresses for morning and afternoon promenades, as well as the more formal gowns for evening wear down among the palms and orange groves of the Southland. Then the array of hats is no less charming and exceptional.

In all, it is one of the most beautiful fashion pictures that has been presented to our public in many a day.

An Orchestra has been engaged for the Royal Poinciana, from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Welcome, to the magic Southland trip, via WANAMAKER'S, today.

Evening Dress Suits for Men

If your evening dress suit is not quite as smart and fresh as you would like, you don't have to count on an expenditure of sixty to eighty dollars to get a new one.

We have applied the most expert workmanship to the producing of finely tailored dress suits ready-made. The finest materials are procured, and very large part of the tailoring is done by careful handwork. The suits are finished in the most artistic manner. Then they cost about half the made-to-order price. And even an expert might be puzzled to know that they were not made to measure.

Men's Evening Dress Suits—full dress or tuxedo coat—of unfinished worsted, silk-lined. The best value ever offered at the price, $30 a suit.

Evening Dress Waistcoats, of all the newest fabrics, at $3 to $5

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Men's Angora Jackets

A man down in Pinehurst the other day expressed the delight and satisfaction that he felt over possessing an angora jacket that he had bought at WANAMAKER'S two years ago. It was one of the first lot that we had brought from abroad. American men liked them so well that we have been bringing more and more ever since.

This man has been wearing his constantly, during the two years, for hunting, golfing, riding, and all sorts of sporting; and it doesn't show a sign of wearing out yet.

The long nap of the angora wool not only gives unusual warmth, but it protects the weave of the goods from wear. For automobiling, skating, or other outing wear, these Angora Garments have no equal.

Jackets, $16.50.
Waistcoats, $10.
Cardigans, $12.

Boleros for Women, $7.50.

AUTOMATIC STREET CLEANING.

President Fish Suggests the Use of Elevating Graders and Loaders.

In addition to Commissioner Woodbury's plan, described in yesterday's SUN, for using trolley cars in removing snow, President Fish of the Illinois Central Railroad suggested to the Commissioner that he try a machine known as an elevating grader and wagon loader, used in the West for the grading of railroads.

As the machine moves it would scrape the snow, and instead of leaving it in ridges would gather it up and dump it into the trolley cars standing alongside. The elevator device is much like that used for straw on a threshing machine.

Ordinarily these machines are drawn by horses, but Major Woodbury suggests that in the city they should be pulled along one track by a trolley car while the train of cars to be filled are drawn up alongside the machine on the other track. Such a system would mean the closing of the two tracks to passenger traffic, but the work would be done in the early morning hours. Major Woodbury said yesterday that if the idea were adopted, Broadway as far north as Fifty-ninth street could be absolutely cleared in four hours.

Germania Lost Steam Steering Gear.

The Fabre Line steamship Germania, from Marseilles, was towed into port yesterday from anchorage outside the bar by the pilot boat New York and the tug McCallen Bros. She carried away her steam steering gear on Saturday and made the Hook on Sunday night, using hand gear. She had a hard voyage, and was forced to put into Bermuda to replenish her bunkers.
